EASY CHECK IN

BY AIR

From Edinburgh International Airport:

There are several regular bus services between Edinburgh Airport and the city centre. The bus stands can be found in the front of the terminal building outside the UK arrivals lounge.

The number 100 bus is a regular express shuttle which runs between the airport and the city (close to the bus and train stations and the high street.) This service runs 24 hours (N22 - night service) a day, 7 days a week, every ten minutes during peak hours and every half an hour off-peak. Cost £3.50 per adult, £2 per child one-way. Get off at the stop on Shandwick Place and walk straight down towards Princes Street, the hotel is on your left hand side.

A taxi transfer will normally take 25 minutes and cost about £20. There are two separate ranks at the airport one for city black cabs and one for private airport taxis.

BY BUS/COACH

From Edinburgh Bus Station:

Exit from the bus station turning left onto North St Andrews Street, travel down to junction with Princes Street and turn right onto Princes Street. Walk along Princes Street for three blocks and the hotel is located on the fourth block on the right hand side.
